Dear Judge Senler:

This letter is in reference to your order dated February 10, 2012. There is no words that can express the horrible feelings and disappointment I have of myself. I am so upset and became so depress that I call my "Primary Doctor" because my blood pressure went up, I had head aches and sleep deficit. At the writing of this letter I became ill with a terrible cold. I'm a little better but I have mild pain above my right and left eye. The cough has calm down.

This letter may not be the letter one would write a Federal Bankrupt Judge such as yourself. I think that my country upbringing and culture from Mississippi sustain my values and simplicity of life. Therefore, I humbly ask for your forgiveness of the terrible error on my part. I'm appealing the "order" with the intent of hope that I'll be given the opportunity to get another chance to go and speak before your Court. In closing I apologize.

I have attached exhibits that may shed clarity of my oversight.
Thank you and hope you'll know that I have no words that will explain the disappointment.

March 1, 2012

Sincerely
Jeanine Buckley pro se
